

ERIC'S SONG

By Dan Garnett

Key of D, 3/4 time 132 Arpeggio

Chorus: A (G) real man is (A) strong, Yet (D) gentle,
His (G) heart is (A) full of (D) love.
(G) Giving (A) unto (D) others,
With (G) grace given (A) him from (D) above.

1. (D) Son, I need to tell (G) you,
What it (A) means to be a (D) man.
Bein' strong, Yet (G) gentle,
Havin' velvet and (A) steel in your (D) hands

2. A man is more than power,
With a mean, hard look in his eye.
Never givin' up nothin',
Even if it means havin' to die. (Chorus)

3. Bein' a man isn't easy,
There's many things you must know.
But there's only one thing essential,
Doin' right because God tells you so. (Chorus)

4. Someday you will be married,
And have sons of your own.
You'll want to give them the secret,
Of how a real man is grown. (Chorus)

© Copyright 1 Jul 1994 Dan Garnett