

The Christian Music Ministry of
Daniel K. Garnett

Dan Garnett is a military retiree (USMC & USAF) who came to know the Lord while stationed with the USAF in Rimini, Italy in 1980.

After retiring from the military in 1984 he felt led to train for Christian ministry. He graduated from Calvary Bible College in Kansas City, Missouri in 1988 as a Pastoral Studies major. With no apparent guidance from the Lord as to a Christian ministry, Dan began work with the US Civil Service.

In 1999 he resigned from Civil Service to take the position of Worship & Education Director at Zion Church in Worland, Wyoming. That was followed by being accepted as the pastor of a small church in Thompson Falls, Montana.

Dan has been involved with music ever since singing the Ginger Bread Man, with a mouth full of gingerbread, when he was in kindergarten. To add to his voice he finally taught himself to play the guitar while in the Marines stationed in Guantanamo Bay, Cuba.

Since 1994, Dan has been writing his own Christian music and finally produced his first CD, Lovin' Arms, in 1999. Dan has been married to his wife Nora for 39 years and has 5 children and 9 grandchildren.

Please visit the web site, <http://TranSonProductions.com> for more information.

The Christian Music Ministry of
Daniel K. Garnett

Dan Garnett is a military retiree (USMC & USAF) who came to know the Lord while stationed with the USAF in Rimini, Italy in 1980.

After retiring from the military in 1984 he felt led to train for Christian ministry. He graduated from Calvary Bible College in Kansas City, Missouri in 1988 as a Pastoral Studies major. With no apparent guidance from the Lord as to a Christian ministry, Dan began work with the US Civil Service.

In 1999 he resigned from Civil Service to take the position of Worship & Education Director at Zion Church in Worland, Wyoming. That was followed by being accepted as the pastor of a small church in Thompson Falls, Montana.

Dan has been involved with music ever since singing the Ginger Bread Man, with a mouth full of gingerbread, when he was in kindergarten. To add to his voice he finally taught himself to play the guitar while in the Marines stationed in Guantanamo Bay, Cuba.

Since 1994, Dan has been writing his own Christian music and finally produced his first CD, Lovin' Arms, in 1999. Dan has been married to his wife Nora for 39 years and has 5 children and 9 grandchildren.

Please visit the web site, <http://TranSonProductions.com> for more information.